Dr. William M. Hale
Division of Bacteriology and Virology
Brookhaven National Laboratory
Upton, Long Island, New York

Dear Doctor Hale:

We are sorry to hear of the illness in your family, and hope that you will be able to attend the conference here on February 20. The formerly tentative plans are now definite: Friday, February 20, at 9:30 A.M. in Room 1201, East Building, 16th Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington.

The conference is to be quite informal and no extensive presentation of data is contemplated. However, brief statements of results and current problems may be expected. The investigators who have agreed to participate include the following:

- Dr. Willie W. Smith, National Institutes of Health
- Dr. M. H. Hatch, Brown University
- Col. G. M. McDonnel, Armed Forces Special Weapons Project
- Dr. Joseph W. Howland, AEC Project, University of Rochester
- Lt. Comm. E. P. Cronkite, Naval Medical Research Institute
- Dr. I. L. Shechmeister, Washington University
- Dr. W. H. Taliaferro, University of Chicago
- Dr. C. Phillip Miller, University of Chicago
- Col. John H. Rust, UT-AEC Agricultural Research Program
- Dr. Simon Koletsky, Western Reserve University
- Dr. Ernst Jawetz, University of California Medical Center
- Dr. Robert E. Bauer, University of Maryland
- Dr. J. Vincent, University of California, Los Angeles
- Dr. Silverman, U. S. Naval Research Development Laboratory, San Francisco
- Dr. William H. Feldman, Mayo Clinic

Sincerely yours,

Paul G. LeFevre
Assistant to Chief (Research)
