

S. P. Howell

032
Surveys

A

David L. Narver, Jr.

7 January 1953

The following sites are those for which the need for high tide line surveys are most probable: Charlie, Fox, How, and Nan. For this reason the surveys for these islands should be undertaken as soon as is practicable so long as the triangulation surveys are not delayed to do the four islands. Triangulation still has top priority for surveying.

Handwritten initials

David L. Narver, Jr.
Chief Project Engineer

DLNjr:cas

cc: Project Manager
JS Chrono
Constr. & Oper. Div.
Ass't. to Proj. Mgr.
L. S. Hammond
Engineering File
Project File
316 Mail Room (2)

Handwritten notes and stamps on the right side of the page.

UNCLASSIFIED

Handwritten notes and stamps at the bottom right of the page.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY
SINGLE REVIEW AUTHORITY	REVIEWER (ADD)
AN 12,550,000,725	J.D. Cas
NAME	DATE
J.D. Cas	7/29/79

UNCLASSIFIED