INFORMATION LIST FOR OBSERVERS AT OPERATION GREENHOUSE

1. Flight:

a. Special Air Mission aircraft, accompanied by a Tour Officer familiar with the general aspects of Operation "GREENHOUSE", will be scheduled to take observers from the MATS Terminal, National Airport, Washington, D. C., to the Marshall Islands. Each group of observers will proceed in two flights. It is planned that the first flight will leave two days prior to the second flight; the second flight is so arranged as to arrive in time for the scheduled program and to view the operations at Eniwetok. Two overnight stops are planned enroute; the first at Travis Air Force Base, California, and the second at Hickam Air Force Base, T. H. All flights are planned to be daylight and are approximately of nine (9) hours duration. Specific schedule and stop-over times will be provided separately.

b. In the event you are unable to join the flight in Washington, D. C., you may make arrangements through the Division of Military Application, USAEC to join the flight either at Travis Air Force Base, Fairfield Suisan, California or Hickam Air Force Base in Hawaii. Prior to your departure the Division of Military Application, USAEC will furnish you the name, office, and telephone number of personnel to contact on your arrival at these two places. They will render assistance in enabling you to join the flight at these two locations and in securing such other facilities as you may require.

c. Arrangements have been made to dispense with all formalities, and honors at Washington, D. C., Travis, and in Hawaii so that little or no attention will be drawn to your movement and that of other observers. The target date for each test is classified SECRET and the general time of all tests is CONFIDENTIAL. It is desired to stress the fact that your proposed trip should in no manner be connected with Operation "GREENHOUSE".

2. Items required prior to commencement of travel:

- a. "Q" clearance (processed by order issuing agency)
- b. Travel orders (issued by the inviting agency)
- c. Identification card (furnished by the order issuing agency)
- d. certificate of immunization or of receipt of a stimulating dosage within the last year against the following: (arranged in order issuing agency)

- (1) Smallpox
- (2) typhoid fever
- (3) Tetanus
